Foreword

Within these pages you will find
The history of our stay
Within the halls of High School,
In study and in play.

The memories of happy hours,
Of friends and school mates true,
May this book bring when we have gone,
Leaving the school to you.

—M. C.

To

Edwin P. Hubble

Our beloved teacher of Spanish and Physics, who has been

A loyal friend to us in our senior year,

Ever willing to cheer and help us

Both in school and on

The field.

We

The class of 1914 lovingly dedicate this book

Class History

As a class we have always prided ourselves upon our athletics, as our history shows. When we were Freshmen we surprised the upper classmen by the good showing we made in an inter-class track meet which was held. The girls had a party to show they had some ability. But with the Sophomore year our brilliance died down for a while and we settled down to study. This year was just a rest before our Junior year, which was to be a strenuous one. On Thanksgiving eve we gave a party which was one of the most successful affairs we had attempted and which we duplicated in the Junior reception. Our athletics was not forgotten, either, as we won the inter-class baseball championship. The framed "N" with the numerals "1913" beneath will remain to remind the other classes of this. We also had six out of the seven men on the basketball team. But our Senior year has been the best of all. Practically the whole football and basketball teams have been from our class. We have also been well represented in the Orchestra, the Wranglers, the Speakers, and the German Club.

The Speakers

Although considerable time was spent this term in securing new members for the Speakers, much valuable work was accomplished. Expression was emphasized and the girls specialized in dramatic reading and story reproduction. Pleasure and work were combined in the regular meetings.

On February 16, instead of conducting the regular meeting in Room 8, the Speakers girls assembled in the "gym" and there, after a lunch, many of the girls responded to toasts with clever speeches. On May 11, chaperoned by Miss Alexander, the Speakers hiked to a woods near Austin's farm. Near a spring in a cool, shady spot the business was transacted and the program given. Although the girls attempted no settlement work this term, they creditably entertained the little children of the Floyd Street Mission, and served them refreshments.

The Executive Committee, consisting of Helen Rodner, president; Florence Lambdin, vice president; Margaret Compton, secretary-treasurer, with Miss Simmons as critic, has worked very hard this term to establish a firm basis upon which the club may grow next year.

The Wranglers

Under the leadership of McPheeters and Teaford, the past year has been one of the most successful in the history of the Wranglers.

In all the public speaking events of the year the Wranglers were the leaders. Both medals in the "Lee Sapinsky Contest" were taken by the Wranglers. The debating team which defeated Bedford was composed entirely of Wranglers.

The Wranglers have not only distinguished themselves in public speaking, but in the other activities of the school they have always been leaders. In the Wrangler-Speaker spread, the boys showed their ability to entertain.

Altogether, in the success in lines of public speaking and debating, in social functions, and in the general work of the school, the Wranglers have proved themselves an aggressive organization, working first for the good of the school, then for that of the society itself.

We, the Seniors, join in a hearty, "Long live the Wranglers!"

Der Deutsche Verein

Although the "Deutsche Verein" has done no public work this term, it has played an active part among the school organizations Under the supervision of Miss Rockenbach and Mr. Hartley, this term has been a prosperous one. The officers for 1914 are: Gladys Kelly, president; Garry Gohmann, vice president; Crystal Taff, secretary; Wally Haug, treasurer.

Under the constitution, the membership is limited to fifty, and only students who successfully pass an examination on the constitution are entitled to membership. In this way the club has been able to get members who are really interested in the success of the German Club.

The meetings, which were held twice a month, were instructive as well as entertaining. The regular programs consisted of extemporaneous speeches, short stories, music and refreshments.

The club has firmly established itself among the organizations of the school and has proved itself to be of great value. "Lang lebe der Deutsche Verein!"

A. K. M.

Following the custom set by the preceding Senior girls, the girls of the 1914 class organized a secret club known as the A. K. M. The club has only one officer, Mary Jackson, president. No regular meetings were held. The society was entertained at the girls' homes. The meetings were not marked by any strenuous work, but were given over entirely to merry-making.

On February 14th, the girls entertained the boys with a Valentine party given at the High School. The boys showed their astistic nature by making all the latest styles of bonnets for the girls.

Lois Severinghaus entertained at a "Kids' Party." Since then many other girls have entertained and have shown themselves to be charming hostesses. The club has been a decided success and the Senior girls will never forget the jolly meetings of the "All Keep Mum."

The Orchestra

The orchestra gave its annual recital on the evening of Wednesday, April 8th, at the High School Auditorium, assisted by some of the Alumni members, and on Saturday they went to Borden, where the same program was given.

The orchestra has grown each year, and it is interesting to know that Mr. Hartley, who is now one of the faculty, was a member of our first orchestra, and can effectively compare the two. Since then it has become a great organization, and this recital was one of the best it has given. The program was as follows:

Rakoczy March from Damnation of Faust	Orchestra
Trio—Violin, Flute, Piano (Serenade).....	Hillman
Gertrude Zinsmeister, Cornelius Sullivan, Esther Scott.
Overture from Stradella	Orchestra
Violin Duet—"Andante," by Papini	Grace Hartley, Esther Browne

Two Dances—"Henry VIII."	Orchestra
Shepherd Dance.
Torch Dance.
String Quartet—Intermezzo from Cavaleria Rusticana,	Jesse Palmer, Annelle Barrett, Ray Winter, Esther Browne

Concert Waltz—Waldteufel.

By request, on April 20th, this program was repeated, with the addition of Beethoven's Largo by the brass quartet, composed of Spencer Wells. Joe Burkhart, Wallace Leach and Richard Harmon.

The personnel of the orchestra:

FIRST VIOLINS—Grace Hartley '13½, Jesse Palmer, Esther Browne, Ruth Byrne '13½, Curtis Scott, Gertrude Zinsmeister, Inez Hartwell, Mary Meek '13½, Robert Kelso, Blanche Scott, Annelle Barrett, David Ellis, Ruth Shrader '10, Virginia Godfrey.

PIANISTS—Esther Scott '13½, Jessie Clipp, Margaret Barrett.

TYMPANI—Shirley Thompson.

DRUMS—Field Sauer.

Football

This year the football season was a marked success from every standpoint. Although the team did not score as many points as its opponents, its record was one of which the school should be proud. The three defeats of the season were due to greater weight and experience of the opponents, rather than to any deficiency on the part of the N. A. H. S. team. On the whole the games were exhibitions that brought joy to the New Albany supporters. The fighting spirit shown by the team, in defeat as well as in victory, was the thing that distinguished it and caused it to make such a good record.

Mr. Buerk, the manager, as well as Messrs. Allen and Moore, the coaches, are to be congratulated because, without their untiring efforts, the team could not have been such a success.

"N" MEN.

GEORGE MOLONY, Captain, Right End—"Molony" was a very successful captain and the best defensive end that N. A. H. S. has had in years.

WILLIAM FELGER, Right Tackle—"Billie" was a steady little player, always fighting at the end.

ALVIN BAYLOR, Right Guard—Alvin was always playing to win.

DAVIS HALE, Center—"Dave" was always "cool." He was an expert passer.

JOE DAY, Left Guard—"Cranberry Joe" always had a cranberry in his mouth; a fine guard and a good line plunger.

JOHN ROBERTS, Left Tackle—"Jack" was a wonderful player for his weight. One of his opponents outweighed him 103 pounds.

RAYMOND WINTER, Quarter—"Wenie" was a fine quarter and saved many points by spectacular tackles.

WALLACE LEACH, Left Half—"Leachy" was the fastest man on the team.

ROBERT BROWN, Right Half—"Pinkie" became famous (especially with the ladies) for his long end runs.

MAURICE DANIEL, Fullback—"Papa" was the mainstay of the team; if he could not gain no one could.

MAURICE MILLETT, Sub. Quarter—A hard worker, he will be a mainstay next year.

RAYMOND RENN, Sub Back—"Ray" could be relied on in a pinch.

ROBERT BEST, Sub End—"Bobbie" was hurt early in the season, but "came back."

CARL AMELUNG, Sub Line—Carl played every position on the line—"a much experienced man."

Basketball

High School was very fortunate, this year, in securing Mr. Hubble, a former basketball star of the University of Chicago, to coach the team.

Mr. Hubble, with the material afforded, was able to build up a team that defeated every team of any consequence in this section of Indiana, and in Kentucky.

The team this year was, without a doubt, the best that New Albany has ever had. Before going to Bloomington it had a perfect record, having defeated the teams from Salem, New Albany Y. M. C. A., Lexington and Henderson (Ky.), and many other teams of note.

In the tournament at Bloomington they started off in fine manner, winning the first two games on the schedule, but the third was lost to the team from Chnton High School. This defeat eliminated them from the race and they were forced to come home without the coveted championship. They made a fine showing, however, and the students are as proud of them as if they had won the State championship.

At the close of the tournament, Fawcett and Joseph were picked on the All-State Second Team, while Daniel was picked among the six best centers.

The students of the school showed their school spirit by collecting a purse of about forty dollars to pay the team's expenses to Bloomington and by giving them a reception when they returned.

"N" MEN.

ROBERT BROWN, Captain, Guard—"Pinkie" was a remarkable guard, stalwart and sturdy, also a good shot at the basket.

CHARLES FAWCETT, Guard—"Charlie" was noted for the swiftness of his attack; his man rarely scored. He was picked on the All-State Second Team.

MAURICE DANIEL, Center—"Deacon" seemed to be all over the floor at once; a great center and a good shot at the basket.

JULIUS JOSEPH, Forward—"Judy" was a wonderful shot at the basket. He made almost half the points scored by the team. All-State Second.

RAYMOND WINTER, Forward—"Wenie" was speedy and aggressive. He was a good shot, and an excellent passer.

WALLACE LEACH, Forward—"Leachy" always played a good game and could be depended upon in a pinch.

CARL AMELUNG, Guard—Carl was a hard worker and a credit to the team.

Inter-class Athletics

Basketball

At the beginning of the customary inter-class basketball series this year, it was decided not to permit the "N" basketball men to participate in the class games. This made the teams from the three upper classes almost evenly matched, the result being a very exciting and interesting series.

When the regular schedule had been played, the Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores were all three tied for the championship. To decide the champions this triple tie necessitated a series of games in which the Seniors won.

The men who composed the Senior team were: Winter (captain), forward; Amelung, forward; Day, center; Fawcett, guard; Molony, guard; Teaford, guard.

It's human nature to like to do unto those who appreciate. We cater to young men especially because they're clothes enthusiasts. They know Superior clothes when they see them, and we feel repaid for the time and study we spend searching the leading markets of the world for them. We expect a good deal of appreciation this spring by young men for SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES.

MARY'S COLUMN

50th Anniversary Coming Next Month

By MARY STEIN

Tribune Society Editor

Harken to this, you many grads of N.A.H.S., most of whom have had, or are about to have a class reunion. Quietly and efficiently a class has been making its arrangements, and of all the reunions to be held this season, this one that is mentioned late, will be the first to celebrate.

It is the class of 1914 which will holds its Golden Anniversary, with a dinner on Saturday, June 6, at the New Albany Inn at 6 p.m. Furthermore, after 50 years, the members can account for each of the 56 graduates, 14 of which have died. The members have, in a way, formed a bond by having three reunions in the past 12 years.

It was a little startling when I discovered that I would have difficulty in contacting one of the class members for information because he had recently started on a new job in Elizabeth to which he commuted over thirty miles each day. I refer to Wallace Leach who will act as master of ceremonies at the dinner. In March Wally started working as a quality control chemist with the Indiana Sand and Glass Company, after three and a half years of retirement from the Louisville Cement Company.

AFTER RETIREMENT WALLY AND WIFE Emily traveled, then after a bit of leisure, Wally became very active in community work, especially Red Cross where he was chairman of the volunteers. He has enjoyed going back to work even though "We had to adjust to a new routine and give up watching the Johnny Carson show," Emily said.

The blue suede-covered programs, lettered in gold, already are complete and printed and this was accomplished, I am told, by Thelma Wallis Moore. The first page shows the class officers. The president was, or is, Gary Gohmann, who though he lives in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, will be here and conduct the memorial services.

Gladys Kelly Wrege was the vice-president and she keeps up New Albany contacts while living in Louisville and is scheduled on the program to give "Excerpts from the Blotter." The secretary-treasurer was Margie Coleman Dean, who lives on Silver Hills and has remained a resident of New Albany.

Also listed on the program for the evening are Will
